

Notice regarding cookies

SC dnata Catering S.R.L., Romanian legal entity, headquartered in Otopeni, Calea Bucureștilor No. 224R, Ilfov County, Romania, fiscal code RO4339914, in capacity of data controller sends you this Notice regarding cookies to explain how we process and protect personal data.

Please read this Cookie Notice at the beginning of your interaction with our site.

What is a cookie and what is it used for?

A cookie is a small text file that is stored and / or read by your web browser on the hard drive or memory of the device you use (for example: computer, laptop, or smartphone) depending on the websites you visit. Cookies also make your interaction with websites more secure and faster, because they can remember your preferences (for example: credentials, language used), the information stored being read by the original website (first-party cookie) or by another website to which they belong (third-party cookie) when you visit the website again using the same device.

How to control cookies

You may withdraw your consent regarding cookie files at any time. To do this, you can block or remove cookie files either through your web browser settings or by using third-party software. In any case, there may be issues related to the use of certain parts of the website if you disable cookies.

If you want to delete the cookies stored on your device and set your web browser to refuse cookies, you can use your web browser preferences settings. You can usually find the cookie settings in the "Options", "Tools" or "Preferences" menus in the web browser you use to access our website. Depending on the existing web browsers, various means may be used to disable cookies. For more information, please visit your browser's website:

- Internet Explorer settings – Internet Explorer;
- Edge settings – Edge;
- Firefox settings – Firefox;
- Chrome settings – Chrome;
- Safari settings – Safari;
- Opera settings – Opera.

To learn more about cookies, please visit www.allaboutcookies.org which provides additional information on behavioural advertising and online privacy.

Existing cookie types

Depending on the function and purpose for which cookies are used, they are usually classified into the following categories:

- Absolutely necessary cookies which allow you to browse a website and use its basic functions. They are usually installed only in response to your actions that equate to a service request. The law allows us to install such cookies on your device if they are strictly necessary for operation of the site. For details on the cookies used in this category, see the section Detailing of the cookies used.
- Preferences cookies are used to recognize you when you return to our website and allow us to provide you with enhanced and personalized features, such as reminding you of your preferences. These cookies collect anonymous information and cannot track your browsing on other websites. For details on the cookies used in this category, see the section Detailing of the cookies used.

- Performance cookies allow us to recognize and count users and collect information about how the website is used (for example, the pages which a user most often opens and whether the user receives error messages from certain pages). This helps us to improve the way our website works, making sure you can easily find what you are looking for. For details regarding the cookies used in this category, see the section Detailing of the cookies used.
- Cookies regarding marketing and identifying the target audience register your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have accessed. We use this information to provide more relevant advertising for you and your interests. At the same time, they are used to limit the frequency with which you can see an ad and to help measure the effectiveness of your advertising campaigns. We may also share this information with third parties for the same purpose (for example: external service providers). For details on the cookies used in this category, see the section Detailing of the cookies used.
- Other types of cookies that can be used later. We will inform you by updating this information if we use any other type of cookies.
